

SAVE THE DATE – CLEVELAND, OH
BUILDING ADVOCACY FOR MIDDLE NEIGHBORHOODS

NOVEMBER 13-14, 2018

Save the date! We hope you can join us for the second national middle neighborhoods convening on Nov 13-14, 2018 in Cleveland, OH.

Themed “Building Advocacy for Middle Neighborhoods,” this convening will bring together the growing movement of practitioners, policymakers, and researchers dedicated to stabilizing “on the edge” neighborhoods around the country. Participants will share insights and learn about recent research efforts. The meeting will also provide practical information about how to mobilize support to better serve these communities.

Save the Date! Middle Neighborhoods in Cleveland, OH | Nov 13-14, 2018

The Federal Reserve Bank of Cleveland, Old Brooklyn Community Development Corporation, Cleveland Neighborhood Progress, and The American Assembly are partnering on this convening, which will take place one year after our first gathering in Baltimore.

If you have questions about this meeting or would like to learn more about middle neighborhoods, please contact Stephanie Sung at ss4336@columbia.edu.

Note: Capacity is limited. Please let us know at your earliest convenience if you plan to attend by emailing Mark Leneker at m12307@columbia.edu. Updates about the agenda, speakers, registration, and more will be announced soon.

We hope to see you in Cleveland!
