

October 2018–January 21, 2019

Prison Nation

At least 2.2 million people are incarcerated in the United States. Prison Nation addresses the unique role photography plays in creating a visual record of mass incarceration and its disproportionate effect on various communities. Co-Curator Dr. Nicole Fleetwood will discuss prison reform and visual advocacy with Ohio panelists. Opportunities for sharing and recording testimonials will be available. This exhibit is presented by The Aperture Foundation and underwritten by The Ohio Transformation Fund.

Opening Reception
Friday, September 28 | 5:00 p.m.

Guided exhibit walk-throughs register at:
cle_prison-nation-opening-reception.eventbrite.com

Cleveland Public Library
Martin Luther King, Jr. Branch
1962 Stokes Boulevard
The People's University | cpl.org

aperture

The Andy Warhol Foundation for the Visual Arts

